Cross the road there is a path that follows the stream on the other side of the road which goes behind some houses.

Follow this path it will eventually come to a stile, cross the stile baring left and on to another stile. Cross this and it will lead you out to a field with a concrete path (top of a drainage pipe). Follow this on through some bushes to a gate turn left onto a path which becomes metallised road.

Continue east keeping to the right on to a footpath in front of a house, just beyond the house you will see 4 small posts designating a cross path. Turning right there is a footpath that goes behind the houses facing the Havant road.

Continue on this and it will turn left on to the footpath over the Hayling Bridge. Turn right and go over the bridge to the entrance of the Hayling Billy Trail.
